ORDER:

In the representation 1st read above, the applicant Smt T. Lavanya w/o T. Prasad, CT 2685, APSPF has requested to provide compassionate appointment considering the delay in submission of application as a special case. Further, she has stated that her husband T. Prasad CT 2685 expired on 30.01.2014 while in service due to kidney problem leaving her and two children aged 09 and 06 years behind. Subsequently, she had submitted an application with relevant documents for compassionate appointment in the office of Director General, Andhra Pradesh Special Protection Force, Secunderabad dated 26-03-2015 for favourable action. Further, she has stated that her application for compassionate appointment was returned vide letter dt:14.08.2015. In which they quoted, vide Govt., Circular Memo.No.60681/Ser.A/ 2003-1, dated 12.08.2003 that the application of the dependent of the deceased Govt. employee shall be entertained only within a period of one year from the date of occurrence of the death of Govt. employee. Since her husband expired, she and her family members were in deep distress and faced severe health problems which has taken four to five months to overcome. She does not have enough knowledge about the rule position of the Government and hence the delay had taken place. Further, the Samaikyandra agitations were also taking place and caused delay in obtaining the requisite certificates required for the appointment.

2. In the letters 2nd read above, the Director General, Andhra Pradesh Special Protection Force, has submitted the proposal reiterating the same facts as stated by the applicant in her representation and requested the Government for taking further action in the matter.

3. Government after careful examination of the matter, hereby order to provide a post of " Office Subordinate" (Attender)" in A.P. Last Grade Service in respect of Smt T. Lavanya w/o late T. Prasad, CT 2685, APSPF duly condoning the delay in submission of application for considering her candidature subject to fulfilment of all other conditions stipulated in the scheme of Compassionate appointment from time to time.

4. The Director General , Andhra Pradesh Special Protection Force, shall take further necessary action in the matter accordingly.

(BY ORDER AND IN THE NAME OF THE GOVERNOR OF ANDHRA PRADESH)
